

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACCS Officers	3
A Message from Our President by Randolph Maphis	4
Retic Fever in South Georgia — “Reticulatas that Grow and Bloom Well Outdoors and Those that are More Challenging” by J. D. Thomerson	8
Sally Simon – Graceful Pillar of the Virginia Camellia Society by Fred McKenna	16
Camellias: Lessons Learned by a Beginner by Mary Burch.....	18
Name that Camellia Quiz.....	21
The Birth of a Camellia Garden by Sam Wellborn.....	22
Fertilizer Choices for Camellias and Companion Plants by Mark Crawford	24
Meet Camellia Grower David Elliot by David Elliot and J. D. Thomerson	26
ACCS Board of Directors.....	34

From the Cover ‘Tiffany’

Light Orchid Pink to Deeper Pink at edge. Large to Very Large, loose peony form to anemone form. Vigorous, upright growth. Blooms Midseason. Registered in 1962 by Dr. J. H. Urabec, La Canada, CA.

Tiffany photos taken by J. D. Thomerson

See Related Article on Page 33

