

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACCS Officers	3
A Message from Our President by Randolph Maphis	4
Growing Camellias from Seed: “From Sprouting to Blooming” by J. D. Thomerson	8
Hofheimer Camellia Garden: “A Garden Within a Garden” at Norfolk Botanical Garden by Bob Black.....	16
The Solving of a Camellia Mystery by Jerry Selph.....	20
Scenes from Around the ACCS	22
Mr. Patrick and Mr. Bob: “Camellia Growers of Prominence” by John Swanson.....	26
Are You Insane? Find Out: Take the Camellia Insanity Quiz by J. D. Thomerson	30
Name that Camellia Quiz.....	33
ACCS Board of Directors.....	34

From the Cover ‘Happy Birthday’

Large, light pink, striped deep pink, peony form with fluted, ruffled petals. It has 60 petals, 12 petaloids, yellow anthers and white filaments. Blooms early to midseason. Registered in 1979 by L.G. MacDowell of Lakeland, Florida.

Happy Birthday photos taken by
J. D. Thomerson